WHAT ICE CREAM
SODA WATER IS, depends upon how it's made and served.
Ours is made from Orange County Cream, frozen smoothly—not a lump in it—flavored with our pure Vanilla Extract—charged with gas from Saratoga Springs and served with any syrup you wish, in dainty thin tumblers. And it's pure and clean from start to finish—as clean as your own home cooking.

That kind of Ice Cream Soda is delicious and wholesome.

Our Premium Extract Vanilla has a national reputation for purity and richness of flavor. Tried by a cultivated palate it wins every time. Some customers send thousands of miles for it. You get it in a 5 cent glass of Soda.

WE MAKE OUR STRAW-BERRY SYRUP from sound, ripe, home-grown strawberries —the finest in the world—berries and sugar, that's all.

Our other Syrups are equally fine—particulars later.

Our Ice Cream Soda represents the best there is—10 cent soda for 5 cents.

It's worth the difference to us as an advertisement.

SEASON AT MIDWAY.

The Park to Be Open Next Sunday.

H. S. STARRETT WILL BE MANAGER.

A License to Be Taken Out at Once—Privilege Holders Getting Things in Shape—There Will Be Lots of Amusements.

Midway Park will be opened next Sunday by H. S. Starrett. There have been several parties looking over the place with the expressed intention of buying it, but nothing tangible developed until today, when a deal was made with Mr.
Starrett. A license will be taken out and the Orange county beer will be on sale.

Mr. Starrett has been the manager of Upton Lake park, near Poughkeepsie.
He is the representative of president McKee, of the Traction company. He is a ventriloquist, Punch and Judy man, manipulator of shadow graphs. He was for fourteen years commissary of the Third Battery, Brooklyn.

Mr. Starrett told an Argus reporter that everything would be open at Midway Park this season with first class entertainments. He will have a grand opening May 28.

Mr. Starrett went to Midway Park today, to take formal possession. He will not assume charge of the park until he has completed his season of entertainments which he is giving. He will appear in specialties at Skilfuls' Snug Harbor, to-morrow night.

Harry Hunt will have charge of the boats and has already begun to put them in shape. The bank along the stream will need attention before the boats can be put out.

Mr. Hunt has sold the electric launch, which was so highly enjoyed under the first year of Capt. Rockwell's management. It was quickly snapped up by Newburgh parties when they learned that it was for sale. The other boats need putty and paint and Mr. Hunt will put them all in good, safe condition.

Ed. Cogdon's bowling alley is also being put in shape for the summer season.
Nothing has been done as yet toward strengthening the roller coaster and preparing the cars for service. This has always been the most popular feature at Midway Park, and should be made as safe as possible.

The question of amusements in the Casino is one which has worried all of the privilege holders at the park. The Traction company wanted them to pay for the summer amusements, and this they felt was an obligation which they could not assume without sacrificing the profits of the season's business.

Last season's outdoor theatricals were enjoyed by a large number of people who took advantage of the cool night time to the park for the hour or two of vaudeville fun.

The work of clearing up the park is going forward just as fast as one man with a small rake can do it, and the outlook now has been that the place would be guttered, cleared of leaves and paths re-banded by July 4th. A dozen days could do a vast amount of work there in two or three days, and the new manager will have them.

The restaurant and peristyle will be found very popular this season by the ladies who will want to watch the more vigorous members of their own and the opposite sex playing golf on the western side of the river. Golf is likely to prove very popular entertainment for all.

The Sunday band concerts will be resumed earlier than ever this season. The first one will probably be given on May 14.

School District Deprived of Public Money.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has deprived a Schenectady county school district of its public money because of its failure to enforce the compulsory education law.
The inspector, when he visited the district, found the school closed and the teacher out hunting for the nineteen pupils of school age in the district not one of whom was attending school.

Government Weather Signals on Post Office Flag Staff.

The Orange County Telephone Company received the government weather signal flags, to-day, and they are displayed from the post office flag staff.

They can be seen from nearly all parts of town and you can tell by looking on the third page of your telephone directory what the signals mean.

Any subscriber to the telephone service is invited to ask "central" for the weather predictions after 12 o'clock. embankment. Neither the man nor the wheel was much the worse for the fall.

Wurtsboro Creamery Project.

The committee appointed to canvass the farmers in the vicinity of Wurtsboro and ascertain how many would sell milk to a creamery if one was established in that village, reported at a meeting held Friday evening, that all but two, who were selling to private parties would sell to a creamery. The milk from 369 cows is thus assured and this quantity is sufficient to warrant the railroad company in building a creamery.

A ROBBER'S VICTIM.

Otisville's Postmaster Knocked Senseless and Robbed.

THIEF GOT AWAY WITH $286.

Was Making Out Monthly Reports When Thief Came Behind Him and Struck Him a Cruel Blow—His Assaultant Not Eaten—No Clue.

Postmaster Ed. Smith, of Otisville, was cruelly assaulted, Monday night, and robbed of $286.

Mr. Smith conducts a general store in addition to being postmaster. Monday night, while the store was still open, he was engaged in posting his books and making out his monthly report as postmaster. At about 10:30 he thought he heard a step behind him and he turned to investigate. As he did so he was knocked to the floor by a blow from a club.

That is all Mr. Smith remembers until he recovered about 2:30, this morning. Then he found that his desk and safe had been rifled and $286 taken.

The windows of his office gave any one who cared a full view of the inside and the burglar or burglars doubtless had an easy time perfecting their plans.

Mr. Smith became worried when his husband did not return from the office by midnight and he went to the store to find out what the delay meant. She found the lights all out and at once concluded that he had gone somewhere and she returned home.

Mr. Smith is suffering severe pain as the result of the blow, but his skull is not believed to be fractured.

There is no clue to the robbers, who are supposed to have got away on a passing train.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

How LeRoy Horton's Fifth Birthday Was Celebrated.

On Monday afternoon, May 1st, Le-Roy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C.
Horton, of Oak street, this city, celebrated his fifth birthday by giving a dinner to a number of his friends and acquaintances between the hours of 4 and 6.

Those present were Minnie Wood, of Goshen; Lester Burnett, Benne and William Katzinger, Annie Trux, Gertrude Emerson and Geraldine Greene, of Middletown.

All the little folks enjoyed themselves immensely and the pretty little presents will be a remembrance to LeRoy for many days. Best of all were the hearty wishes of his little friends for many happy returns of the day.

terest in the coal and lumber business of Gordon & Horton, on Henry street, and young man of good business habits, who has a large acquaintance in this city and vicinity and he will undoubtedly add very materially to the firm's large busi-

Announcement.

Randall Irving Tyler's new novel, "The Blind Goddess," was published on May 1st by The Streetview Publishing Co.
Tyler's first book, "Four Months After Date," published last September, has run well through the third edition, a most unusual experience for a new writer.

"The Blind Goddess" deals with incidents drawn from the recent poisoning cases that have excited such widespread interest. A practical illustration is given of an innocent man and an innocent woman who are accused of crime before a coroner and indicted, without a hearing, before a magistrate. It is a popular theme, and the story abounds in dramatic situations.

MOR EWORK FOR FIREMEN.

Fire in the Attic of a North Street House—Occupants Made Hurried Exits—A Sick Woman Carried Out.

Fire was discovered in the house owned by Ball & Youngblood, nearly opposite Donovan's livery, on North street, at 10:30, Monday night. An alarm was sent in from box 25, and when the firemen reached the scene, flames were pouring out of a big hole in the roof, lighting up the surroundings brightly.
After an hour and half's work the flames were extinguished and part of the house was saved but the structure was soaked with water.

The building was occupied by E. H.
Woodruff, a carpenter, and Mrs. Mary A. Wilson, who conducted a boarding house. The fire started in a cupboard in the attic and gained great headway before being discovered by Virgil Crist and Harrison Wheeler, who slept in the attic.
They gave the alarm to the other occupants of the house. Mrs. Harrison Wheeler, who is a daughter of Mrs. Wilson, and her week old baby were carried down stairs and across the street to Mr.
Parson's house. All of the other occupants fled with only such clothes as they could pull on hurriedly.

Engines were delayed in going to the fire by a west bound freight train, but once the track was passed succeeded in getting first stream on the blaze.
Phoenix also secured a stream. While the firemen were at work it was given out there was no insurance on Mrs.
Wilson's property. The crowd began to work and soon stripped the house of everything movable. The fire police placed the ropes in position and soon had the crowd back out of the way of the firemen.

The water which was being poured into the attic finally hit the place where the fire was and extinguished the blaze, but not until streams were dropping through the walls from floor to floor.

Ball & Youngblood have $1,500 insurance with A. B. Wilbur. Mr. Woodruff has $500 with Gardner & McWilliams.
Harvey Wilson, a member of Phoenix Engine company, cut his wrist quite badly on a window pane.

OBITUARY.

Michael J. Yore.

Michael J. Yore died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ann Yore, on the Dobson-town road, near the city limits, Monday afternoon. The deceased was formerly employed in the old Orange County livery house and when the concern was removed to Greenpoint went there also.
Two months ago he was attacked with pneumonia, and other complications developed. Wednesday he was removed to his old home here, where he continued to grow worse until death resulted.

He is survived by his mother, brother and sister. He had a very large circle of friends who will deeply mourn his death.

The funeral will be held on Thursday, at 10 o'clock, from St. Joseph's Church.

Chauncey DeKnapp Black, died at her evening, aged eighty-two years. She had been an invalid for the past three years and during all that time has been most tenderly cared for by her devoted daughter, Miss Mary E. Black, with whom she lived.

Mrs. Black was a daughter of Columbia and Martin (Hick) Bailey and married Dr. Black at Newburgh fifty-five years ago. After his death, which occurred forty years ago, she lived for a time in New Orleans and elsewhere in the South but returned to Orange county thirty years ago and most of her life after that was spent in this city.

Two sons, who were born to her died and her daughter, above referred to, is the only survivor of the family.

Mrs. Black was a member of Grace Church. Rev. E. Evans will conduct
